About

Arizona Business Travel Association

---

Arizona Business Travel Association (AZBTA) is an affiliate of the Global Business Travel Association (GBTA) whose members represent major corporations and travel suppliers. Along with AZBTA, the global organization provides members with information on the latest technical and service advantages within the industry, as well as current legislative issues involving travel costs and safety matters affecting business travel.

Membership Categories

Direct Members

Any individual employed by a company whose primary responsibility is to procure business travel services and/or to promote and administer travel services for the employees of their company.

Allied Members

Any individual employed by any carrier, hotelier, livery company or other related firm engaged in directly providing business travel services.

Other categories include:

Educator Members, Honorary Members, Retired Members, and Student Members.

Connections

Make the Right Connections

Monthly Meetings

Featuring prominent industry leaders speaking on business travel related topics. Most meetings held 3rd Wednesday of the month, check website for schedule.

Government Relations

AZBTA together with GBTA are the voice of the industry in Washington. Stay informed regarding policies that affect the business travel industry.

Annual Charity Event

AZBTA hosts one charity fundraiser annually with assistance from our membership volunteers. We have raised more than $20,000.00 and donated to various Arizona based charities.
