Clarissa joined Alaska's Los Angeles Sales Team 13 years ago. She resides in Long Beach, CA and currently manages corporate and agency sales in Southern CA, AZ, NM, and LAS. Having been raised in Hawaii, upon graduating from the Univ of Oregon, Clarissa set her sights on working for an airline to have access to venture beyond "paradise". Happily, she began her career with Western Airlines in Honolulu, then moved to Los Angeles with Delta. From reservations to airport customer service, cargo and passenger sales, Clarissa has enjoyed every facet of the airline industry. Clarissa credits Alaska's people, workplace culture, and the travel industry partners she meets for enriching her business and personal life.
